Medical Assistance and Multi-Assistance Insurance

Health care for students from the European Union

Tarjeta Sanitaria Europea (TSE)

This is a free card that provides access to medically necessary public health care during a temporary stay in any of the 27 EU Member States, plus Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway and Switzerland, under the same conditions and at the same cost (care is free in some countries) as persons insured in that country. The benefits covered include, for example, those provided in connection with chronic or existing illnesses, as well as those related to pregnancy and childbirth.

The cards are issued by the social security offices in your country.

The TSE card:

- It is not an alternative to travel insurance. It does not cover private health care or costs such as the return flight to your home country or the loss or theft of your belongings.
- It does not cover your expenses if you are traveling for the express purpose of receiving medical treatment.
- Does not guarantee free medical services.

Private or multi-assistance insurance for students from non-European Union countries

Taking out a private health insurance

If you are a resident of a non-EU country, you will need to take out private health insurance in order to obtain your student visa.

Perhaps your country has a health agreement with Spain: in this case you will have access to health care as any Spanish citizen, although it only covers emergency expenses and you would benefit from basic health care. health care as any Spanish citizen, although it only covers emergency expenses and you would benefit from basic health care.

We recommend some private insurances:

- Seguro Caixa Adeslas (36€ al mes)
- Seguro Sanitas (25,15€ al mes)

You can also ask your insurance company if you already have international coverage.
